

Retail Golf Tournament

Wednesday, May 28th, 2008

The Retail Golf Tournament is without question the major event for meeting key people in the industry, retailers and suppliers of products and services in a friendly atmosphere conducive to discussion. One of the most popular activities of the CQCD.

Usually held at the very beginning of the season, the tournament brings together one hundred and forty-four golfers on a prestigious course of a private club.

Program of the day:

- 9:30 Brunch
- 11:30 Tee-off
- 18:00 Cocktail hour
- 19:15 Dinner and distribution of prizes

Sponsoring the tournament means...

A productive day of networking, a unique opportunity for you to enhance your exposure and increase awareness of your company, to develop your clientele and to engage in targeted public relations in a pleasant and relaxed environment.

Whatever your communications objectives, our various sponsorship options, ranging from a basic investment to a made-to-measure opportunity for increased exposure, will provide you with a good return on your investment while allowing you to reach your target audience.
